Help support Amnesty International's worldwide human rights efforts and enjoy great music performed in the beautiful Christ & St. Stephens Church.

PROGRAM

The first part of the program will be music for piano, saxophone and piano/vibrato duo. The centerpiece is a work entitled Human Rights, written for chorus and jazz quartet by the French composer, Antoine Miannay. The text is from the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The music is beautiful and passionate; its lyrical, rhythmic and jazz qualities create a spirited and soaring celebration of human rights in words and music.

Human Rights will be performed by singers from CantaNYC and AIUSA Group 11, led by Claude Levy. Musicians will include Marcia Eckert, Jesse Goldberg, Nicholas Kaponyas, Zachary Marzulli, Riley Palmer and Michael Raposo.
